excerpt from The Port Phillip / Glen Eira Leader :

"For every band there is almost always a comparison. And for some, it isn't always a good one. But for THE VULPINE, comparisons with some of the world's most successful acts have been gratefully received. Fans have compared the soulful voice of lead singer Jam Nawaz with that of Hamish Cowan, the lead singer of the '90s band Cordrazine. Others think the band has a sound similar to Radiohead - or even Jeff Buckley. In two years, THE VULPINE have managed to attract a solid fan base and have played at venues across Melbourne, including the Hi-Fi Bar and St Kilda's Espy."

Influences : Jeff Buckley, Muse, Radiohead, The Mars Volta
